

A red pickup truck is driving away from the viewer on a dirt road that stretches into the distance. The road is flanked by green fields. In the background, there are utility poles and a white barn. A large, vibrant rainbow flag is draped across the sky, creating a colorful backdrop. The overall scene is peaceful and rural.

Measures fail in Hutch, Salina

Wichita Eagle November 6, 2012

Hutchinson — Voters in Salina and Hutchinson rejected ordinances offering legal protection from discrimination to members of the gay community.

At 10 p.m. Tuesday, with about 80 percent of the vote counted, Awaken Hutchinson, which had fought the anti-discrimination measure saying it was unnecessary, declared victory. The proposed ordinance was defeated, 58 to 42 percent. "It's looking like a good, clean win," said Paul Waggoner, a businessman who helped lead the effort against
